DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over anyone of Hartman et al, Everaerts et al, Makhoul et al, Gehlsen or EP 0717091.

3. Applicant's arguments have been considered along with the Declaration, however the CD-Rom was not considered since it was not part of the application. It is still deemed that the instant claims still read on the prior art references since the construction of the claims as presented still read on expanded microcapsules which contain all of the gas called for to be totally contained within the capsule in the reading of the "and/or" portion of the claim 1. The term "release only part of their contents" could read on the gas that is totally or partially expanded within the microcapsule or outside the microcapsule.

4. The declaration does not contain the closest showing in the comparison made since all proportions of the adhesive agent and the amount of microcapsules employed in the composition are deemed contemplated. It would appear that the proportions of expandable microcapsules employed in the composition would be critical as to the results obtained and the claims are devoid of such. Nor does the Declaration make such a showing.

5. In any case the references are still deemed to read on the claimed composition for the aforesaid reasons.

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

- 1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
- 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
- 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
- 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
